

IRONSHORE INDEMNITY INC.

(A Stock Company)

Mailing Address:

PO Box 3407

New York, NY 10008

PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT

Ironshore wants you to know how we protect the confidentiality of your non-public personal information. We want you to know how and why we use and disclose the information that we have about you. The following describes our policies and practices for securing the privacy of our current and former customers.

What information does Ironshore collect?

The non-public personal information that we collect about you includes, but is not limited to:

- Information contained in applications or other forms that you submit to us, such as name, address, license number and date of birth for each driver.
- Information about your driving and / or accident history
- Information we may receive from a certain consumer reporting agencies, including motor vehicle records and loss history information.

What information does Ironshore disclose?

We disclose the information when it is determined necessary to provide our products and services. We may also disclose information when the law requires us to do so.

How does Ironshore protect confidentiality and security?

Only our employees and others such as the agency that issued this policy who may need the information to service your account have access to your personal information. We have measures in place to secure our paper files and computer systems.

Does Ironshore grant the right to access or correct personal information?

Yes - you have a right to request access to or correction of your personal information that is in our possession.

How do insureds contact Ironshore?

If you have any questions about this privacy notice or would like to learn more about how we protect your privacy, please contact the agent or broker who handled this insurance. You may also contact Ironshore at 1-877-411-IRON. A detailed statement of our privacy practices is available at www.ironshore.com